(Instructions to observe and participate in the meeting can be found here)

Stakeholders may, but are not obligated, to provide their names or personal information as a condition of observing or participating in the meeting. When signing into the Webex platform, stakeholders may be asked for their name and email address. Stakeholders who choose not to provide their names will be required to provide a unique identifier, such as their initials or another alternative, to log in to the meeting, and so that the meeting moderator can identify individuals who wish to make a comment; stakeholders who choose not to provide their email address may utilize a fictitious email address in the following sample format: "XXXXX@mailinator.com".

Agenda items may be taken out of order and subject to change at the discretion of the Bureau Chief and/or the moderator.

The time allotted to each topic and each speaker may be limited, at the discretion of the Bureau Chief and or the moderator, if circumstances require. Stakeholders who utilize translators to make comments will be allotted twice the amount of time, unless they utilize simultaneous translation equipment. Stakeholders will not be permitted to "yield" their allotted time to others.
